District of New Hampshire

MEMORANDUM

DATE: October 4, 2019

TO: Honorable Andrea K. Johnstone
U.S. Magistrate Judge

FROM: Karin M. Hess
U.S. Probation Officer

RE: Tara Karvosky
Dkt. No.: 19-MJ-152-01-AJ

Report of Bail Violation – No Action Requested

The probation officer respectfully recommends that the Court take no action at this time to allow the probation officer to address this noncompliance through treatment and increased monitoring. In support of this recommendation, the probation officer offers the following information.

Release Status

On July 9, 2019, the defendant appeared before Your Honor, pursuant to a warrant that was issued following the filing of a criminal complaint charging her with Conspiracy to Distribute Controlled Substances, specifically 400 Grams or More of a Substance Containing Fentanyl, and Cocaine, in violation 21 U.S.C. §§ 846 and 841(a)(1). At that hearing, she was ordered released on conditions to include pretrial supervision.

Details of Current Violation

Condition #8(p): The defendant shall refrain from use or unlawful possession of a narcotic drug or other controlled substances defined in 21 U.S.C. § 802, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner.

On September 9, 2019, the defendant provided a urine sample that tested positive for the presence of cocaine through laboratory analysis. She admitted to the use of cocaine on or about September 6, 2019. The defendant is currently attending individual and group substance abuse counseling at the Phoenix House in Keene, NH and receives medication assisted treatment (MAT) for Suboxone. In addition, the probation officer has instructed the defendant to report to the probation office for bi-weekly case management meetings and attend a minimum of two self-help meetings per week.
